

Spring Break Bingo

Directions: Happy Spring Break! Here at Read.Write.Think. We strongly believe that you should enjoy your time away from school to have fun! We also know that reading, writing, and thinking ARE fun! We are inviting you to a Spring Break Challenge! The rules of the challenge are simple... complete as many squares as you can during break! Can you get 4 in a row?

All 4 corners? Fill the whole board? Good luck and have FUN reading, writing, and thinking!

Look around your house or go outside and find as many objects as you can that start with the letter 'L'.	Write a story in the style of a graphic novel or comic.	Read for 20 minutes at least three times over the break.	Create, practice, and perform a play. Ask your relatives, friends, or neighbors to join.
Write a new ending for a show or movie you watch over break.	Play a board game with a family member, friend, or neighbor.	Read aloud part or all of a book to a stuffed animal, friend, pet, or family member.	Write as many words as you can think of that rhyme with "pit" but you have to use something other than a writing utensil (playdough, sand, sidewalk chalk, pieces of cereal, etc.).
Ask a relative, neighbor, or trusted adult to tell you a story from their childhood.	Read a poem or the lyrics to a song.	Read a book aloud in a funny voice (robot voice, monster, duck).	Write about your day. Remember to include a beginning, middle, and end.
Listen to a podcast for kids about a topic that interests you.	Set a timer for 2 minutes and write as many words as you know how to spell.	Get creative. Find materials around your space and create your own world (jungle, castle, Antarctica, etc.).	Go on a walk with a family member, neighbor, friend, or trusted adult. Write down three things you saw on your walk. Turn them into a poem or song.
